

A large, dense pile of discarded paper and magazines, illustrating the recycling process. The pile is composed of various types of paper, including newspapers, magazines, and promotional materials. The colors are varied, with many shades of white, yellow, and brown, indicating different types of paper and their degradation. The text is overlaid on this background.

Le papier se recycle 5 fois

Papier vierge -> cahiers -> magazines -> prospectus -> journaux